

Advent

Second Sunday of Advent
Sunday, December 10, 2017
9:15 am
Grace Hall, North Campus

Welcome to First Community Church

We are a Christian church, affiliated with the United Church of Christ and the Disciples of Christ denominations. We welcome people of all Christian traditions as well as people of other faiths and people of little or no faith, and those who are searching.

Christian worship has been offered by First Community Church, Columbus, Ohio, for over 108 years. By worshipping with us today, you become a part of that living tradition. Our regular worshippers and church members, supported by members of the staff and a large number of volunteers, make up our church community. We are committed to diversity, equal opportunities and personal and spiritual development of all who work and worship here, because, as our church's belief statement says, "we strive to follow the path of Jesus Christ while recognizing other pathways to the divine."

Thank you for being with us for worship today. If you desire a pastoral call, please indicate this on the welcome pad. If you are in need of prayer, please fill out a prayer card located in the Welcome pad booklet and place it in the offering plate. Our prayers go with you as you return to your home.

(The paper we use for the order of service is recycled. You are welcome to take it away with you, but, if you would like us to recycle it for you, please place it in one of the bins at an exit, as we are also committed to our environment, God's Creation.)

The Service of the Word and Sacrament

ADVENT II

*God's Son became a human being.
All our efforts to understand this great mystery are in vain.
All that we can do is what the shepherds did—
Worship, believe and praise God.*

— Cardinal Alfred Bengsch (1921-1979)

THE RINGING OF THE BELLS

THE CALL TO CONTEMPLATION

*For the quiet time during the prelude, we invite you to be in prayer.
As you leave the service of worship, join in rejoicing with your neighbor.*

THE HANDBELL PRELUDE

O Come, O Come Emmanuel

Veni Emmanuel, 15th century arranged by Cynthia Dobrinski (b 1950)

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: Our God approaches; may our worship today prepare the way to welcome the Christ Child.

All: For this Child will become the one who reveals the glory of God for all people.

Leader: Let us find the places of fear and wilderness in ourselves and in the world, and in those places let us make a pathway for God to enter in,

All: For the good tidings resound for every one of us – let us sing and pray in thanksgiving!

†THE ADVENT HYMN

Veni Emmanuel

O come, O come, Emmanuel, and ransom captive Israel
That mourns in lonely exile here,
Until the Son of God appear.

Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to you, O Israel!

O come, O Wisdom from on high, and order all things far and nigh;
To us the path of knowledge show,
And help us in that way to go.

Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to you, O Israel!

†THE CALL TO PRAYER

Leader: In this Advent season, we each play a part in the unfolding drama of Jesus' birth. We are more likely to be found as harried, tense innkeepers than adoring shepherds at Jesus' side. Let us acknowledge that which distances us from the love and worship of God, and at times leaves us unable to be present to others.

†THE PRAYER

Leader: Let us pray.

People: God in whom all hearts find welcome, we confess that we have not yet made as much room in our hearts for the Christ child as we want to.

Leader: Like the innkeeper, we often relegate Christ to some out-of-the-way corner of our lives, without really intending to.

People: Like Bethlehem at census time, we have little room for anything we haven't planned for.

Leader: God, in whom all hearts find shelter, hear our prayer.

All: Help us, in the midst of our busy, sometimes burdened lives, to welcome the One who always has time for us.

†THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: Hear again these words:

God will speak peace to the people, to God's faithful, to those who turn their hearts to God.

Salvation is at hand for those who honor God,
that God's glory may dwell in our land.

Steadfast love and faithfulness will meet;
righteousness and peace will kiss each other.

All: Thanks be to God!

†THE RESPONSE (The people singing)

In dulci jubilo

Good Christian friends, rejoice, with heart and soul and voice;
Now give heed to what we say; Jesus Christ was born to save!
Calls you one and calls you all, to gain His everlasting hall.
Christ was born to save! Christ was born to save!

THE WELCOME

THE LIGHTING OF THE SECOND CANDLE: The Bethlehem Candle
The First Prophecy Reading: Isaiah 11:1-4a, 5-7, 9

A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse,
and a branch shall grow out of his roots.
The spirit of God shall rest on him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might,
and the spirit of knowledge.
His delight shall be in honoring God.
He shall not judge by what his eyes see,
or decide by what his ears hear;
but with righteousness he shall judge the poor,
and decide with equity for the meek of the earth.
Righteousness shall be the belt around his waist,
and faithfulness the belt around his loins.
The wolf shall live with the lamb,
the leopard shall lie down with the kid,
the calf and the lion and the fatling together,
and a little child shall lead them.
The cow and the bear shall graze,
their young shall lie down together;
and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.
They will not hurt or destroy on my holy mountain;
for the earth will be full of the knowledge of God
as the waters cover the sea.

Leader: Here ends the reading from the prophet Isaiah.

People: Thanks be to God!

THE CAROL (remain seated to sing)

St. Louis

O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shines forth the everlasting light,
The hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.

(Following the Carol, the children in K-3 will be invited to leave for their Sunday school classes. Grades 4 & 5 and Middle School youth will remain in the service for the Sacrament of Holy Communion.)

THE SECOND PROPHECY READING

Isaiah 40:1-11

Comfort, O comfort my people, says your God.

² Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and cry to her that she has served her term, that her penalty is paid, that she has received from the Lord's hand double for all her sins.

³ A voice cries out:

"In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

⁴ Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain.

⁵ Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken."

⁶ A voice says, "Cry out!" And I said, "What shall I cry?" All people are grass, their constancy is like the flower of the field.

⁷ The grass withers, the flower fades, when the breath of the Lord blows upon it; surely the people are grass.

⁸ The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand forever. ⁹ Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good tidings; lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings, lift it up, do not fear; say to the cities of Judah, "Here is your God!" ¹⁰ See, the Lord God comes with might, and his arm rules for him; his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.

¹¹ He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead the mother sheep.

Leader: Hear what the spirit is saying to the Church.

People: Thanks be to God.

THE SERMON

*LET EVERY HEART PREPARE
Part 2 – Repeat the Sounding Joy*

THE OFFERTORY

The Offertory Sentence

The Receiving of the People's Gifts

The Handbell Anthem

The First Noel Traditional English Melody and Pachelbel's Canon
arranged by Brenda Austin (b 1972)

†The Presentation of the Gifts and the Prayer of Dedication

Leader: As the gifts are presented, would all rise in body or spirit.

With sincerity of heart and full assurance of faith, let us pray.

People: O Lord our God, in holiness and splendor and love so strong that the stars tremble,

Leader: You come to earth to love us.

People: In gratitude for the precious gift of life, we bring these gifts.

Leader: We resolve this hour to love Christ with fresh devotion,

People: To serve him with renewed energy,

Leader: And to seek him in deepened prayer.

People: O God, bless this our promise.

All: Amen.

†THE PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Celebrant: God be with you

People: And with your spirit.

Celebrant: We give You thanks, God of majesty and mercy, for Your blessing, an intrinsic gift of life. We do not have to ask for it or seek it or fear that it will not be there. It is of the essence of life. And we thank You for our journey as persons and society toward realizing all the gifts of creation.

People: You weave our lives together, uniting us in one human family. We confess our feeble attempts to make life seem simpler than it really is, by denying the complexity and diversity of the whole human family.

Celebrant: Open our hearts, O God, to a new understanding of the wideness of Your love, which flings open church doors and celebrates the immensity of Your creation.

People: Loving God, who made this world a place for Jesus Christ and before he was born, promised his coming in the words of the prophets, we thank You for this holy supper, which is for us a sign of his returning to claim his lands and people. Amen.

(The people may be seated.)

THE WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Celebrant: (The Words of Institution for the Bread)

The world is hungry for love and justice, O God,

People: And we are hungry to become Your disciples.

Celebrant: Bless now this bread, that in eating it, we may be filled with the fullness of Jesus Christ, and empowered to live as his sisters and brothers among all those who are in need.

Celebrant: (The Words of Institution for the Cup)

The world is thirsty for love and justice, O God,

People: And we thirst to become Your disciples.

Celebrant: Bless now this cup, that in drinking it, we may renew our covenant with You, and be fortified to nurture Your creation in hope and joy.

People: In our eating and drinking at this table, may our eyes be opened, and may we recognize the risen Christ in our midst and in each other.

Celebrant: As Christ taught us, we are bold to pray,

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

THE GIVING OF THE BREAD* AND CUP

Each person will be invited to come to a communion station to receive the bread and cup. You will receive the bread from the server. Each person may then dip the bread in the chalice held by the other server. An appropriate response to the server's words is "Amen." After receiving communion each person should return to his or her chair by the side aisle. Anyone who is unable to come forward should indicate this to an usher and communion will be brought to him or her.

*(Non-alcoholic grape juice is served for everyone and gluten free bread is available on each bread plate in a separate cup.)

THE POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Celebrant: Let us pray.

All: Bountiful God, we give You thanks for the gift of our Savior's presence in the simplicity and splendor of this holy meal. Unite us with all who are fed by Christ, that we may faithfully proclaim the good news of Your love in an uncertain world. Amen.

†THE ADVENT CAROL

It Came Upon the Midnight Clear

Carol

It came upon the midnight clear, that glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth to touch their harps of gold;
"Peace on the earth, good will to all, great news of joy we bring."
The world in solemn stillness lay to hear the angels sing.

For lo, the days are hastening on, by prophet bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years comes round the age of gold;
When peace shall over all the earth its ancient splendors fling,
And all the world send back the song which now the angels sing.
