

FIRST COMMUNITY CHURCH
Second Sunday after Epiphany
January 14, 2018
9:15 am
Grace Hall, North Campus

Welcome to First Community Church

We are a Christian church, affiliated with the United Church of Christ and the Disciples of Christ denominations. We welcome people of all Christian traditions as well as people of other faiths and people of little or no faith, and those who are searching.

Christian worship has been offered by First Community Church for over 108 years. By worshipping with us today, you become a part of that living tradition. Our regular worshippers and church members, supported by members of the staff and a large number of volunteers, make up our church community. We are committed to diversity, equal opportunities and personal and spiritual development of all who work and worship here, because, as our church's belief statement says, "we strive to follow the path of Jesus Christ while recognizing other pathways to the divine."

Thank you for being with us for worship today. If you desire a pastoral call, please indicate this on the welcome pad. If you are in need of prayer, please fill out a prayer card located in the Welcome pad booklet and place it in the offering plate. Our prayers go with you as you return to your home.

(The paper we use for the order of service is recycled. You are welcome to take it away with you, but, if you would like us to recycle it, please place it in one of the bins at an exit, as we are also committed to our environment, God's Creation.)

The Service of the Word

Man must evolve a method for all human conflict which rejects revenge, aggression and retaliation.

The foundation of such a method is love.

— Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. (1929-1968)

My religion is very simple. My religion is kindness.

— 14th Dalai Lama (b 1935)

THE RINGING OF THE BELLS

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: God of the prophets, call to us today.

People: Call us into Your ways of love, justice and righteousness.

Leader: God of the poets, remind us again how much You love us.

People: Sing to us Your ways of love, justice and righteousness.

Leader: God of the disciples, teach us how to follow You.

People: Teach us Your ways of love, justice and righteousness.

Leader: God of all creation, help us to know Your ways.

All: We gather to hear Your call, to sing Your praise, to learn from each other, to pray and worship as the Body of Christ.

Leader: Let us worship God!

†THE HYMN

All Are Welcome⁽¹⁾

Two Oaks

1 Let us build a house where love can dwell And all can safe - ly live,
2 Let us build a house where proph-ets speak, And words are strong and true,
3 Let us build a house where love is found In wa - ter, wine and wheat:
4 Let us build a house where hands will reach Be - yond the wood and stone
5 Let us build a house where all are named, Their songs and vi - sions heard

A place where saints and chil - dren tell How hearts learn to for - give.
Where all God's chil - dren dare to seek To dream God's reign a - new.
A ban - quet hall on ho - ly ground, Where peace and jus - tice meet.
To heal and strength-en, serve and teach, And live the Word they've known
And loved and trea - sured, taught and claimed As words with - in the Word.

Built of hopes and dreams and vi - sions, Rock of faith and vault of grace;
Here the cross shall stand as wit - ness And as sym - bol of God's grace;
Here the love of God, thru Je - sus, Is re - vealed in time and space;
Here the out - cast and the strang - er Bear the im - age of God's face;
Built of tears and cries and laugh - ter, Prayers of faith and songs of grace,

Here the love of Christ shall end di - vi - sions:
Here as one we claim the faith of Je - sus:
As we share in Christ the feast that frees us:
Let us bring an end to fear and dan - ger:
Let this house pro-claim from floor to raf - ter:

All are wel - come, all are wel - come,

all are wel - come in this place.

†THE PRAYER (2)

Leader: O God of all nations and peoples, we are grateful for the dreams of freedom, justice, and peace forever spun by Your Spirit and focused by prophets in every age.

People: O God, keep us faithful to Your dream.

Leader: We are grateful that in our time You call every man and woman to lift up and live by that dream, asking the questions, exposing the lies, making the sacrifices, easing the hate, and expanding the compassion.

People: O God, keep us faithful to Your dream.

Leader: We praise You this day for all those down through the ages whose names are known and unknown, who quicken the conscience of this country and the human family around this globe, whose courage and commitments, vision and enthusiasm and joy brace our spirits and fire our wills.

People: O God, keep us faithful to Your dream.

Leader: So we thank You and remember and move boldly on in the faith that, however dark the night, however heavy the weight of injustice, we can be confident and buoyant in You and Your promise that one day justice will roll down like waters and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream and peace abide in our hearts, through this land, on this earth between brothers and sisters of every race, every nation, every faith, every orientation, every generation, every wounded, wonderful one and all of Your human family.

All: Keep us faithful to that promise, Your dream, for Christ's sake, and for ours. Amen.

THE WELCOME

THE FIRST EPISTLE READING

II Corinthians 3:17-18

Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.

Leader: These words are breathed into us by the Holy Spirit.

People: Thanks be to God.

THE HYMN (remain seated to sing)

Sweet Hour of Prayer

Sweet Hour

Sweet hour of prayer! sweet hour of prayer! that calls me from a world of care, and bids me at my Mak - er's throne let all my needs and wants be known. In sea - sons of dis - tress and grief, my soul has of - ten found re - lief, and oft es - caped the tempt - er's snare by thy re -

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

(The children in K-5 will be invited to leave for their Sunday School classes.)

THE SECOND EPISTLE READING

Philippians 4:10-13

I rejoice in the Lord greatly that now at last you have revived your concern for me; indeed, you were concerned for me, but had no opportunity to show it. ¹¹ Not that I am referring to being in need; for I have learned to be content with whatever I have. ¹² I know what it is to have little, and I know what it is to have plenty. In any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of being well-fed and of going hungry, of having plenty and of being in need. ¹³ I can do all things through him who strengthens me.

Leader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

People: Thanks be to God!

THE HYMN (remain seated to sing)
